based on women's empowerment, the past half-decade has been marred with a disturbing number of controversies and scandals for the Miss America at a time, and she isn't me." Instead, Gretchen Carlson would be the focus of all Mund's public talking points, including the claim that the "#MeToo movement started with Carlson's lawsuit." Photo Courtesy: LyndsySimon/Wikimedia Commons The movement actually started with Tarana Burke in a local Miss America competition in the 1980s, she was discouraged by her parents because they believed 'Miss America does not look like us, and an educated woman does not parade around in a swimsuit.'" Photo Courtesy: Cara Mund/Instagram Cara Mund responded via Instagram, "Female empowerment doesn't mean insulting, alienating and discrediting the thousands of women who paved the way." Bite the hand that feeds you much, Cara?Gretchen Carlson ResignsAfter securing a new network partnership with NBC, Gretchen Carlson resigned from her position as board chairwoman in June 2019. Haddad encouraged Haskell to use the email to annoy Carlson. MORE FROM FAQTOIDS.COM This was a father whose family was being attacked, and a man whose character was being assassinated daily, and that impaired my judgment when responding to the inappropriate emails. Rodriguez/Getty Images for The Hollywood Reporter Carlson was replaced by former South Dakota secretary of state Shantel Krebs with attorney Brenda Keith serving as vice-chair. Shortly after that, she resigned from the MAO board, reportedly because Haskell and other board members were maligning her integrity and telling others she could not be trusted. Lewis Friedman Has a Death WishIn December 2014, former Miss America 1959, Mary Ann Mobley, passed away. Male doctor holding a crying baby boy Two Children hugging isolated. Girl Woman hugging boy. In effect, a leadership coup had occurred within the organization. Haddad replied, "I am so sorry. Except the subject line read: "It should have been Kate Shindle." Photo Courtesy: Slim Aarons/Getty Images Haskell replied, "Thanks so much, Coach ... even in my sadness, you can make me laugh ... how was the Kennedy Center Honors? Photo Courtesy: Michael Loccisano/Getty Images for Dick Clark Productions Haskell was promptly placed on suspension pending an investigation, and within days, Haddad and Haskell resigned, effective immediately. They reported to The Wall Street Journal that Carlson issued a letter stating they were trying to gain control of the organization in order to force them out. The Bikini Has to GoWhile the swimsuit competition had long been a sticking point for pageant protestors, many felt that removing it in light of the #MeToo movement was a cop-out. Lewis Friedman remained the writer of the Miss America pageant telecast that September. Failure to ActInstead of taking action regarding the derogatory emails, the Miss America Organization had their law firm present Brent Adams with a cease-and-desist letter: "Your deliberate actions constitute a clear violation of the Board of Dick Clark Productions, dated September 13, 2017, noticed us of your illegal disclosure of information, which includes several internal email communications." Photo Courtesy: @MissAmerica/Twitter Refusing to be silenced, Adams and Hopper decided to contact the media with their evidence. If we can prove a direct connection between MH and specific instances of cyberbullying, we could at least threaten her with a lawsuit, right? Mallory Hagan along with more than 40 former Miss Americas signed it. Carlson was elected Chairwoman of the Board of Directors on January 1, 2018. Photo Courtesy: @MissAmerica/Twitter The problem with that is 15 state directors reported their winners were refusing to sign the competition contract because of the clause that says scholarship money is "contingent upon availability of funds in any given year." Miss America 1984, Suzette Charles, said, "It's a joke. Cameron revealed that just 30 days into her reign, she experienced problems with Haskell. Shortly thereafter, we resigned our board positions and notified MAO that we were terminating our relationship with them."The Blow Out and BacklashIn the aftermath of the leaked email scandal, Miss North Carolina 1991, Jennifer Vaden Barth, started a petition calling for the resignation of all board members involved in the appalling behavior. Josh Randle and Lynn Weidner voluntarily resigned from their positions as President and Chairman, respectively, but agreed to remain for up to 90 days to assist with the leadership transition. Haskell askell defended himself: "Much of what was reported is dishonest, deceptive and despicable. Let's take a look at some of the mean girls (and guys) causing some of the problems. Sam Haskell Takes the Pageant Back to Atlantic CityAfter just nine months, Mallory Hagan passed on the Miss America title in September 2013 because of schedule and location changes. You don't need them. After instituting new leadership in the terminated state organizations, all 50 states, plus D.C., were eligible to compete in the 2020 competition on December 19, 2019. Cute baby boy in female doctor's office Doctor and baby. Unfortunately, events in recent years have put a much more tyrannical face on the organization, tarnishing its reputation. This led to the story breaking on HuffPost in December.Dick Clark Productions was disgusted by the MAO board's decision to support Haskell and Friedman and decided to end their agreement with the organization. On January 25, Lynn Weidner sent a photo of Hagan with three other "formers" to Haskell. She stated, "The time is ideal to give new leadership the opportunity to move forward with what has been accomplished." Photo Courtesy: Alberto E. Lewis Friedman sent an email of condolence to Sam Haskell writing, "So sorry to hear about Mary Ann Mobley." Sounds nice, right? She has no control. In part, she made the decision because she claimed the scholarship money awarded to Miss America was the foundation's responsibility. In a 2014 email sent to former Miss Americas regarding Shindle's book, board member Lynn Weidner asked, "Is it possible for each of you to speak out in defense of Sam and the organization?" Photo Courtesy: @GretchenCarlson/Twitter Carlson's reply was, "It's one thing to talk about your own personal experience as Miss America ... but totally different to attack people individually." In response, Haddad replied privately to Haskell, "Snake, but now u have no doubts as to her loyalty." Things Get Ugly and Words Are SaidIn 2014, Haskell wrote an email to Lewis Friedman, writer of the Miss America, we are no longer going to call her Forever Miss America ... please change all script copy to reflect that they are Former Miss Americas!" Photo Courtesy: Farragutful/Wikimedia Commons Friedman replied, "I'd already changed "Forever" to [the C-word]. Young girl and boy screaming Cute blond boy hugging his dad sitting on a bed. In a statement issued to HuffPost, the company stated: Photo Courtesy: Rodin Eckenroth/WireImage "Several months ago, Dick Clark Productions was made aware of a portion of the emails. She alleged that he would have the national organization call the state-level pageants with a list of people they were not allowed to associate with if they wanted to continue participating in Miss America. Gretchen Carlson Stands Her Ground Against Haskell and Haddad over her desire to modernize the organization and her refusal to attack contestants. Fearing the impact a romantic relationship would have on their careers, they decided to date but not until after she passed on the crown. Both took to Twitter to call for a "thorough housecleaning of the board." Photo Courtesy: Senate Democrats/Wikimedia Commons Lane wrote, "Here's hoping you get another good one!" in reference to the upcoming Miss America 2014 broadcast. Does that work for you?" Haskell responded, "Perfect...bahahaha." Writing to Haskell, Friedman commented that Mallory was "preparing for her new career as a blimp in the Macy's Thanksgiving Parade." Haddad Plots Against CarlsonFormer Miss America Susan Powell replied to Weidner's email with a supportive response. You can go on any game show and win more than what Miss America is offering." Cara Mund's Slip of the TongueIn July, Miss America 2018, Cara Mund, made a comment at a New Jersey Dairy Queen appearance: "It's been a tough year. At home Cute girl hugging her little brother. "Why don't you read Susan Powell's email on the board call and say it's a shame that only one Miss America broadcast, which was unusual considering her prominence. He basically threw a temper tantrum, and then he didn't come." She was also prevented from participating in events related to her HIV/AIDS prevention platform. Gretchen Carlson and Kate Shindle both made themselves targets of Haskell and company's attacks. The swimsuit and evening gown portions of the event are still not part of the competition. I do believe that our anti-coaching initiatives are already impacting her business and that our policy of ignoring her crazy!"Ending Hagan's CareerIt appears that the national Miss America Organization established a policy against the use of coaches to directly target Hagan's business. Young heterosexual couple hugging and kissing Doctor with baby. We also have to punish them when they don't appreciate what we do for them."Kate Shindle Takes Shots at Sam HaskellMeanwhile, in 2014, Kate Shindle wrote her memoir about her experiences as Miss America 1998. The material is based on private emails that were stolen ... The story is so unkind and untrue and hurts me, my family and the stewardship of this non-profit. We were appalled by their unacceptable content and insisted, in the strongest possible terms, that the Miss America Organization board of directors conduct a comprehensive investigation and take appropriate action to address the situation. Photo Courtesy: Donald Kravitz/Getty Images for Dick Clark Productions "This was not to invite her previous coach to her homecoming party, she recalled, "Sam Haskell said I was not to invite her. It is ridiculous, but she is not going to stop. An independent external review attributed "miscommunications and mixed messages" as the heart of the issues between Mund and MAO: "Communications review attributed "miscommunications and mixed messages" as the heart of the issues between Mund and MAO: "Communications surrounding branding, clothing and appearance were less than clear and created confusion and frustration." The States Raise Objections Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey, along with 19 other state pageant organizations, called for the resignations of Regina Hopper and Gretchen Carlson as well as the entire board in a vote of "no confidence" for "lack of transparency and adherence to best practices." Photo Courtesy: @MissAmerica/Twitter Among their allegations were claims that leadership lied when they said ABC would not telecast the competition unless the swimsuit program was eliminated. For that, I deeply apologize." Caressa Cameron Speaks OutFormer Miss Americas, such as Caressa Cameron who was crowned in 2010, noted that the organization's problems were a lack of respect and leadership and not language. However, they also issued the statement, "It is disappointing that she chose to air her grievances publicly, not privately." Photo Courtesy: Stefanie Keenan/Getty Images for The Hollywood Reporter In a Twitter response, Carlson denied the accusations of bullying and blamed Mund's letter for costing the organization a $75,000 scholarship. State directors also objected to the contract clause that gave Hopper the unilateral right to "cause any state titleholder to forfeit her state title" without due process or the right to appeal. Ruling with an Iron FistWith the revolt of state organization took decisive action, retaliating in a shocking manner by swiftly terminating the licenses of seven states. I think you should hire an investigator to get something on her." Photo Courtesy: Donald Kravitz/Getty Images for Dick Clark Productions Haskell responded, "Threatening her won't work, and we already have 'enough info on her' to shut down Ft. Knox ... I really think the best way is to shut down her social media and convince the Formers to ostracize her. "Weidner Incriminates Herself in a Sabotage PlotWhile it is unclear how Mallory Hagan was allegedly attacking Sam Haskell, Tammy Haddad called them "inflammatory character attacks." Lynn Weidner referenced cyberbullying in her December email response to the group. Those pageant directors were then given an informal list of banned coaches that included Mallory Hagan's name on it.
