Payday 2 2021

While the Covid-19 pandemic has launched some phones manufacturers for a cycle, many technicians and faithful users hope to have had some time to collect their bearings for 2021. Rumors surrounding the new most cool smartphones, many Of which you expect to launch sex this year, it has already started to circulate. Some of that buzzing indicate a number of innovative features and breakage of borders, therefore, while waiting for official announcements, we want to control everything that we know so far of the most expected smartphones of about 2021. The new incarnation of Apple's flagship iPhone It is undoubtedly one of the new smartphones more than 2021. The company traditionally introduces three or four versions of their latest iPhone every year, so many are anticipating 2021 to Usher in iPhone 13 Mini, iPhone 13, iPhone 13 Pro and iPhone 13 Pro Max. Photo courtesy: Jane Khomi / Getty Images while Nothing's set in Stone again, some of the most widespread items about the iPhone 13 suggest that it could come with several exciting updates. Significant sources, such as Techradar, suggest that some of these updates can include: Touch ID is under the display or on the screen, a smaller notch - or no notch to all charging in port through MAGSAFE or Wireless LPTO TECH and 120 technology Hz Update Vote a periscope camera for greater optical zoom possible four video cameras with smaller Lidar design as you might expect to see the new iPhone hit the shelves, the best we have is an educated hypothesis. For the last decade, Apple announced their new phones in September, just to release them 10 days later. Unfortunately, 2020 has been shown to be the exception to the rule, with the complications of the Covid-19 pandemic that drives the release of iPhone 12 back to October 2020. The pandemic in progress will have the impact of the pandemic the release of the iPhone 13? For now, that remains unclear, but we keep our fingers crossed that Apple back scheduled in 2021. While the folding phone was initially a bit a little gambling, it was one that Samsung was increased with courage. The initial launch of the fold galaxy has reached a lot of interests, even if it has arrived with its right share of duration and battery life problems. Fortunately, the Samsung Galaxy Z Pient2 was released in September 2020 and has proved to be a giant leap forward thanks to its larger front screen, longer life and the standard 5G function. These great improvements have many Samsung fans eager to listen to what the inevitable Samsung Galaxy Z bend 3 will take to the table. Several voices are already running, including that the new galaxy Z fold 3 could be presented: a capacity of a pen and stylus with a camera under the front panel 256 GB storage a bright strip on the hinge a more light and elegant design until We can expect watching the new Samsung folding on the shelves, nothing is still confirmed. A Korean publication claims that the galaxy z fold 3 will start shipping to May, while other workers claim that we should not expect to see it up to much later in 2021. Very similar to Samsung took a leap of faith with the folding phone , LG has officially announced that they intend to venture into an unexplored smartphone territory. During the electronic consumer Show (CES) 2021, LG announced rolling LG, a smartphone that can turn into a tablet. Photo of courtesy: Sparrows News / YouTube while LG showed their imminent phone in a short teaser, not much more is currently known on how its technology works. But if the phone display extends through a button or Manual, it looks pretty cool to give a folding phone a race for their money. Better than all, the rolling LG combines the advantages of widescreen options without the folding phone lock À é à,~ "ie, no fold or zipper. We know that the LG ROLLÉble is set for release in 2021, with Leaks that predict that it could hit the shops not just March. The fact that the audience seems to know less than that of the other 2021 more Smartphones did not take it from becoming one of the most buzzworthy of the list. It seems that Sony is preparing to announce his latest premium smartphone, the Sony Xperia 1 III. The following for the Sony Xperia 1 II last year, the last incarnation Xperia should maintain many of the same design characteristics of its predecessor. It seems to maintain the best features of the Xperia 1 II, such as front speakers, a 3.5 mm headphone jack and dust and waterproof resilience. Given the camera of the next Xperia 1 II level and the superior speed, it is difficult to imagine how its update can become much better. That being said, Rumor has Sony added a number of advantages to their new "real multimedia smartphone". The workers provide that the new version can include: greater upgrade frequency from 60Hz to 120Hz an OLED 4K HDR display with an optical ratio 21: 9 Zoom Octa-Core Octa-Core Qacommm Snapdragon 888 Octa-Core chipset Snapdragon 888 La Phone release date should be announced not just March this year, but if the release of last year from Sony is any indication, it is likely that the release date of 2021 May is. If the chronology is an indication, then we can see a new series 9 before rather than afterwards. The company has traditionally announced the release of its new offers near the beginning of each new year of calendar, so the OnePlus 9 series could be in stores not just March or April. Now that OnePlus has broken with their old budget smartphone line, fans are eager to see what the series 9 updates will offer. The voices have already started to circulate from a variety of sources and suggest that the series 9 can be presented: a 6.55 inch Full HD + 120Hz display flat screen larger than a quad-lens camera water resistance for A maximum of 30 minutes in 1.5 meters Snapdragon 888 Processor, with 8 GB of RAM and 128 GB of internal storage The big demand on the minds of many fans is if OnePlus will continue with its recent version of median phones or simply take the Things at the next level with more expensive, but award, OnePlus 9. Daniel Kaluuya in À é à,~ À "Judas and the Black Messiah; Rachel Sennott in À é à,~ À "Shiva Baby"; Emily Blunt and Noah Jupe in À é à,~ À "A quiet place part IIA À é à,~; and Yuh-Jung Youn in "Minari.À é à,~ Photo of courtesy: Warner Bros / Utopia / Paramo WEA, à" é has already talked about some of the best and more chianti shows of 2021. Now the time comes to explore movies With our list of some of the best titles of the year. Keep in mind that this list will be updated as new films are released. The pandemic has changed the release calendar of some of these films, many of which have been initially planned for The 2020. Furthermore, the last edition of the Oscars and other premium competitions have made some 2021 eligible films if they were released in the first two months of the year, which is why some of the titles here will seem familiar. Some of them have been of the Frontiers of the past or even winners' award. Here are some of my favorite movies of 2021 so far. Carey Mulligan in À é à,~ À "Promising Younging Woman. Revenge's exhibit that Stars Acevenge Mulligan as Cassie, a previous young promising woman, whose career as a doctor and personal life disrupted after a tragic event. Fennell continued to win the best original Oscar screenplay for this film and also received a nomination for her work at direction. The film carries a powerful message on consensus and increases awareness of mental health. It also has a killer soundtrack and a very deliberated aesthetic accented in pink candy. Young woman Promised open in theaters and videos upon request (VOD). It is available on VOD hour for $ 5.99. Photo of courtesy: IFC film We have included this documentary in a recent article on current films and television programs that can teach us a lot about black history in America. MLK / FBI is the director of the FBI of almost-obsession J. Edgar Hoover had a civil rights activist Martin Luther King Jr. during À é à,~ ~ 50 years old À é à,~ ~ 60s. Hoover has collected salary and sexual material on the king obtained through surveillance. The intent was to damage the reputation of the king. But the documentary emphasizes how, despite the monitoring of the king so closely, the FBI was unable to warn the Minister Battista on threats about the lives of him. MLK / FBIÀ é open in Theaters and VOD January 15th. You can rent it now for $ 4.99. Darrell Britt-Gibson, Daniel Kaluuya, Lakeith Stanfield in À é à,~ À "Judas and Black Messiah. "Photo of courtesy: Warner Bros. Also included in our list of films that can teach on black history in America is this story based on real events. Judas and Black MessiahÀ ± Ars Daniel Kaluuya as president of the Chapter of Blackkinois of Black Panther Party, Fred Hampton, and Lakeith Stanfield as Bill Bill of FBI Bill. Both Kaluuya and Stanfield received Oscar nomination for their roles here and Kaluuya ended up winning. The film was produced by Ryan Coogler ( Black Panther) and directed by Shaka King; he won a second Oscar for his original song "fighting for you". The film depicts the infiltration of OÀ é à,~ À "e Neal of the party of Panther Blacks and the murder of Hampton, in the wake of the strict FBI surveillance. Judas and Black Messiah presented reference simultaneously in Theaters and HBO Max on February 21st. It was available in Torrento on HBO Max for 31 days later and can now be rented on Amazon, iTunes and other flats Shapes for $ 5.99. Alan S. Kim and Steven Yeun in À é à,~ À "Minari.à, à,~ Photo of courtesy: A24 Another past contender Oscar on the list. À, MinariÀ é tells the story of a Korean American family who moves From California on a farm in Arkansas in À é à,~ ~ 80s. Actress Yuh-Jung Youn, who plays a non-typical grandmother, made her story by becoming the first Korean performer to win an Oscar in a category of acting. Even the film has shown once again that Steven YeunÀ é has many other aspects of actor to be a zombie fighter. And made a young actor Alan S. Kim a star. The Ovolontenne won the Critics Choice award for the best young actor / actress for him in this film. Minari was opened in the cinemas on 12 February and was available in video on demand on February 26th 2021. You can rent it for $ 5.99. Olivia Colman and Anthony Hopkins in "Minari." Photo of courtesy: Sony Pictures Classics Anthony Hopkins plays Anthony, an 80-year-old with dementia that is set in ways of him. Olivia Colman is Anne, the daughter of Anthony. She tries to understand how to provide help to her father of her, who doesn't seem to be more able to live alone. Filmmaker Florian Zeller, who directed and co-wrote this movie based on him, tells this story from the point of view of the Anthony, even if he is no longer the most reliable of the narrators. The father won an Oscar for the adapted screenplay and a second surprise victory occurred in the best race of the actor due to the performance of Hopkins. The late Chadwick Boseman actor was the favorite in the category for the role of him in the black background of but Rainey, but Hopkins is sure to give a masterful performance here as an independent antonio. The father is available on video on demand for $ 5.99. Photo of courtesy: Apple TV + This documentary about Singer-Songwriter Billie Eilish offers an intimate perspective of the artist at 17. Filmmaker R.J. Cutler shows the home of the Child of Eilish; the places where she composed and recorded with her older brother of her, Finneas; As you got the license of his her driver é à Ne | The documentator also follows it on tour while promoting his debut album "when we fall asleep, where are we going? À é à,~ À "Shiva baby.à, à,~ Photo of courtesy: Utopia Emma Seligman writes and directs this acute comedy on a bisexual Jewish woman, Danielle Danielle SennotT), which resembles convolbrently in ShivaÀ é with his parents. He didn't know he died, it is overwhelmed by his great extended family, mortified that everyone continues to ask for his studies ". Furthermore, his ex Maya (Molly Gordon) is presented, which represents everything that" is good, Promising and composed in life. And his sugar Daddy, Max (Danny Deferrri), opens even and is a former colleague of his father and very married. Shiva BabyÀ é is available on video on demand for $ 5.99. This animated feature, which presents the vocal talent of Olivia Colman, Maya Rudolph, abbi Jacobson and Danny McBride follows a somewhat dysfunctional family while embarking on a road trip throughout the country while driving his daughter Major Katie (Jacobson) to college. Mitchells end up in an unlikely battle against a robot army that has decided to rebel against humanity. While fun and moving, the mitchells also control the machines, makes a stand on the absurdity of what should be a family À é à,~ thematic ". It is also possible to see it also as a comment on our dependence on the technology that is Definitely much more positive than any black mirror episode. The mitchells against the machines are available on Netflix, was released on 30 April 2021. Emily Blunt in "A quiet place part II." Photo of courtesy: Paramount Plant: M Well aware of the fact that a quiet place part II is in this list just because it is the first film I saw in a cinema after 14 months of deprivation of the cinema caused by the pandemic. But the fact is that the sequel by John Krasinski of a post-apocalyptic world invaded by monsters makes the perfect back-to-the-film experience for the perfect cinematographic experience. And while this film is not quiet as the first, I guess who explains why IC Ineasiness didn't go with the title a quieter place, it's still a lot of a nail story with enough silences and tension to keep you at the edge of your seat. I don't feel that he suffered from any sequel bloat and actually made me want a third film in the franchise. A quiet place Part II was inaugurated exclusively in theaters on May 28th. And there have been many other interesting films so far this year. The animated raya feature and the last dragon on Disney + has made a case for a more south-east Asian representation and warrior princesses. Netflix kept us assorted with many titles. The excavation is based on real events; Stars Carey Mulligan and Ralph Fiennes; And he tells the story of an archaeological excavation on the verge of WWII. Concrete CowboyÀ é has foreign things "Caleb McLaughlin as a young Cole and Idris Elba playing his father. The urban story depicts the culture of the black cowboy of Philadelphia. And then I'm very interested in, in which Rosamund Pike is played in Marla, a legal guardian Without heart that you expect with your foot with Peter Dinklage Roman. You haven't seen her final. Robin Wright made her debut of the directory function with earth, in which she too stars. Play a woman who retires in a cabin in the Wyoming and learn a valuable lesson on how to live in the desert. And it is difficult to know how to class the framing of Britney Spears, since part of the Documentary FX series the New York Times presents. But this episode dedicated to the pop Star Britney Spears. Available on Hulu, he certainly captured our attention and changed as many of us perceived the artist. It also makes the perfect watchmate in Billie Eilish: the world "Sa small SF Ocatara. If you have ever liked 2020 never rarely sometimes and certainly lighter without progress, you should check the plan of hulu b. it à à À É is certainly raunchier of the two previous films, but it wakes up again to access Contraception and abortion services for women Which are forced to sometimes travel hundreds of miles or even through state lines to receive this health care. And adds to the list of other very interesting films 2021 Mona Fastvoldo film, À, ~, the world is the world. It it Katherine Waterston and Vanessa Kirby as two women in the 20th century half-century America living in isolation with their husbands, but there are one another, form a friendship and end up in a romantic relationship.
